

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: April 13, 2025

Thank you for visiting our website. We are committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring that your personal information is handled in a safe and responsible manner.

1. Who We Are

This website is operated by CodonCode Corporation in support of our software product. This policy outlines how we collect, use, and protect your personal information.

This policy does not apply to third-party applications, websites, products or platforms that may be accessed through (non CodonCode) links that we may provide to you.

2. Information We Collect

When you interact with our website, we may collect the following information:

- Information about the individual web pages you view, what websites or search terms referred you to our site, and how you interact with our website.
- Device-specific information (for example the IP address and operating system)

When you interact with our website through contact forms, for example quote or trial request forms, we also collect the information you provide on the contact form, which may include:

- Full Name
- Email Address
- Physical Address
- Phone Number
- Other content you submit

3. How We Use Your Information

We use the information we collect to:

- Respond to inquiries and support requests

- Communicate with you about our software
- Improve the functionality and performance of our website
- Analyze aggregate data for website performance and user experience
- Enforce terms and conditions and policies

We do not sell, rent, or share your personal data with third parties.

However, we may use or disclose your personal data to respond to legal requests and prevent harm, or to otherwise protect our rights or property.

4. Data Storage

Form submissions are stored locally on our servers. We implement reasonable technical and organizational measures to protect your data from unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction.

When data is submitted through the site, we may maintain this information for our records unless and until you ask us to delete this information.

5. Website Analytics

We use Umami for privacy-focused website analytics. Umami does not collect personally identifiable information. It helps us understand general website usage while respecting user privacy.

6. Cookies and Tracking

Our website may use cookies to enhance functionality or remember your preferences. You can control cookie settings through your browser.

Please note that we do not alter our site's data collection and use practices when we see a "do not track" signal from your browser, because, currently, there is no uniform standard of how this signal is communicated by browsers.

7. International Visitors

If you are accessing our site from regions with data protection laws such as the European Union (GDPR) or California (CCPA), you have specific rights regarding your personal data, including:

- The right to access your data
- The right to correct, update, or delete your data
- The right to restrict or object to data processing
- The right to data portability (where applicable)

To exercise these rights, please contact us using the contact information provided at the bottom of this document.

Additionally, please note that your information may be transferred outside of your home country, including to the United States of America.

8. Children's Privacy

Our website and software are not intended for individuals under the age of 18, and we do not knowingly collect data from children.

9. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Changes will be posted on this page with an updated "Effective Date."
